IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: This bill makes it a Class B infraction (subject to a maximum civil judgment of $1,000) instead of a Class C infraction (subject to a maximum civil judgment of $500) for a person to violate a speed limit that is imposed in the immediate vicinity of a worksite when workers are present.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues: Revenue to the State General Fund could increase if an infraction is changed from Class C to Class B. The maximum judgment for a Class C infraction is $500 while the maximum judgment for a Class B infraction is $1,000. Proceeds from infraction judgments are deposited in the State General Fund. No additional revenue from court fees would be expected since the fees for both infraction types are $70 effective July 1, 1997.

Explanation of Local Expenditures:
